

23rd July 2021

Thank you so much to all of our patients who have been so responsive to our message sent out last week.

We are still experiencing some absences but hope to be back to normal next week.

Members of staff who have had covid are improving and those who have had to self-isolate should be able to return next week.

Again, we thank you very much for your co-operation and understanding.

The Glebe Surgery